STATE OF VERMONT, District of Manchester, ss.

THE HONORABLE PROBATE COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MANCHESTER:

To all persons interested in the estate of

Maria R. Hemenway, late of Manchester, in said District deceased, GREETING:

At a Probate Court, holden at Manchester, within and for said District on the 25th day of May, 1916, an instrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of

Maria R. Hemenway, late of Manchester, in said District, deceased, was presented to the Court aforesaid, for Probate.

And it is ordered by said Court that the 25th day of June, 1916, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon at the Probate Office in said Manchester, be assigned for proving said instrument; and that notice thereof be given to all persons concerned, by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Manchester Journal, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, in said District, previous to the time appointed.

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the probate of said will, if you have cause.

Given under my hand at Manchester in said District, this 25th day of May, 1916.

EDWARD GRIFFITH, Judge.

The Honorable Probate Court for the District Aforesaid.

George O. Woodcock late of Manchester in said District, deceased, GREETING:

WHEREAS, said Court has assigned the 10th day of June, next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, for examining and allowing the account of the Administrator of the estate of said deceased, and for a decree of the residue of said estate to the lawful claimants of the same, and ordered that public notice thereof be given to all persons interested in said estate by publishing this order three weeks successively previous to the day assigned, in the Manchester Journal, a newspaper published at Manchester, in said District.

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear at the Probate Office in Manchester, in said District, on the day assigned, then and there to contest the allowance of said account if you see cause, and to establish your right as heirs, legatees and lawful claimants to said residue.

Given under my hand this 25th day of Mrs. E. E. Hills of Middlesex, has demonstrated that chicks can be hatched under hens to a large extent.

She set 100 eggs of the White Orpington strain under hens and got 80 fine chicks. She has sold 140 day old chicks hatched by hens and has for herself about 200.

The stock barn on the farm of Howard Varney in South Strafford was destroyed by fire a short time ago, the entire contents being lost, including 25 head of cattle, hogs, hay and farming tools. The building was partially insured.

Robinson A. Cartmell, for many years active in the manufacture of pulp for paper, who had served in both branches of the General Assembly, died of kidney trouble Sunday morning at his home in Middlebury.
He was born July 24, 1847, in Lancashire county, England, and migrated to Canada when about 17 years old.
From Canada he went to St. Johnsbury and his early business life was spent in the firm of Bancroft & Cartmell, pulp manufacturers, at East Barnet. He later became identified with the Fall Mountain Pulp Company at Bellows Falls. In 1881 he went to Middlebury.

Arthur James, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert James, and Frank Laramia, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Laramia, both of Vergennes, were drowned in Otter Creek Saturday afternoon. The bodies were recovered Sunday morning.

Following the service in the Congregational Church at Bellows Falls Sunday morning, Deacon C. W. Osgood read the resignation of Rev. Dr. A. P.
Pratt, who has been called to the pastorate of the Second Congregational Church at Greenfield, Mass. A vote was taken to determine whether the resignation would be accepted. It was voted to accept the resignation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roberts and Mrs. Nellie Jacobs of North Clarendon were arrested Saturday morning at 11 o'clock by Deputy Sheriffs D. A.
Barker and H. R. Adams on warrants issued by State's Attorney C. V.
Poulin, charging breach of the peace.

McDermitt & Halligan of New York City, who have the contract for building the Putnam Memorial hospital at Bennington, have made arrangements for the preliminary work and a large quantity of tools and material will arrive in a few days. The building committee has on hand more than $130,- 000 for building the hospital and for its equipment. The building is to be completed next March.

The death of Mrs. Arabella Holden, who had been a cripple for 74 years, suffering injuries from a fall out of a baby carriage when a year old, occurred Saturday a. m. at the home of her nephew, Waldo H. Farrar of Montpelier. She suffered a shock a week ago and a second one on Saturday.

Governor McCall of Massachusetts, has named Wellsworth Thomas of North Adams, for a time a student at Middlebury College, as one of the three to take examination for the United States Military Academy at West Point.

Mrs. Ida Calderwood has had word that her son, Burton, has been discharged from the 100th Canadian Grenadiers of Winnipeg, Manitoba, and is expected home soon. The boy was only 17 years old and enlisted without the consent of his parents.

Richard Sumner, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner of Readsboro, narrowly escaped death when he was attacked by a dog with which he had been playing and bitten in the face. The boy was found, he was unconscious with his face torn and chewed. Several stitches had to be taken.

A horse being driven in Waltham by Ward Merrill and Harold Hunt became frightened at an auto truck and plunged down a seven-foot embankment, over a four-foot woven wire fence.
Merrill, who was driving, was thrown onto the horse. Both boys escaped without injury. Although the carriage was tipped over and the horse thrown in a brook, no serious damage was done.

A Complete Car in Every Particular And It's a Car You Will Be Proud to Own

It's the first complete car at anywhere near so low a price.

It stands out alone—boldly—unapproached—a powerful five-passenger touring car complete for only $615.

Note that word "complete."

That means Electric Starter, Electric Lights, Electric Horn, Magnetic Speedometer—in fact, every necessary item.
Nothing is lacking. There are no extras to buy.

Note that it is not a small car. The wheelbase is 104 inches. The tires are four-inch size—many cars costing more have smaller tires.

And it is a perfect beauty—snappy, stylish, speedy.

In every way it's a car you will be proud to own and ride in.

No wonder there's a rush to possess the car the world has been waiting for.

Don't delay—see us at once and talk it over.
